Women golfers take a swing at cancer

SPECIAL TO VIERA VOICE

Fifty-five senior women golfers took to the links on April 7 for the 12th annual Rally for the Cure Golf Tournament at Indian River Colony Club. Outfitted in pink, members of the IRCC Women's Golf Association and their guests vied for cash prizes and golf accessories. The 18-hole scramble on the par 72 golf course raised over $1,500 for cancer research sponsored by the Susan G. Koman for the Cure Foundation.

Cancer survivor and co-chair of the event, Billie Alexander said, "We've done this for 12 years now. All of us enjoy coming together for such a good cause. This one was another success and we're already looking forward to the tournament next year."
